EVALUATION 25X1X PLACE OBTAINED 25X1A Boy 3/  DATE OF CONTENT prior to March 1952  DATE OF CONTENT prior to March 1952  DATE OBTAINED 25X1A  DATE PREPARED 2h December 1952  REFERENCES 25X1A  PAGES 1 ENCLOSURES (No. a TYPE)  REMARKS.  1. Prior to March 1952, source learned from Folish workmen that the barracks installation which was located on the south side of the forms) Krakower Strasse at the western edge of Lublin (S 52/R 18) and consisted of several multi-story red brick buildings, was occupied by a Polish infantry regiment and a UB unit. Fersomel of the UB unit wore service color which w.s somewhat a lighter red than that of the infantry unit.  2. Prior to March 1952, KIM troops in the strength of at least a battalion were quartered in a camp of about 20 low wooden buildings on the west side of ul. Lipowa, former Linden Strasse, north of a consetery in the western section of the town. The commanding officer was a lieutenant colonel who, source learned from a prison inspector, was a Russian. The soldiers were khaki uniforms with blue collar pathes, preen shirts, dark green neckties and service caps with blue bands. They were equipped with submachine guns. 1ight machine guns and mortans of about 80-mm caliber, and had light armored recommaisance vehicles, various trpe trucks and Russian sedars. They were engaged in fight ing guerrilla groups in the Lublin area, 2  3. In the spring of 1950, a barracke installation was being built about 2 km sout-sast of the town on the northside of the road toward Plackf Luterskie construction Sources of the town on the northside of the road toward Plackf Luterskie construction Sources of the town on the northside of the road toward Plackf Luterskie construction Sources of the cown on the northside of the road toward Plackf Luterskie construction Sources of the cown on the northside of the road toward Plackf Luterskie construction Sources of the cown on the northside of the road toward Plackf Luterskie construction Sources of the cown on the northside of the road toward Plack	COUNTR	PolandAl			REPORT I	NO.
DATE OF CONTENT prior to March 1952  DATE OF CONTENT prior to March 1952  DATE OF CONTENT Prior to March 1952  DATE PREPARED 25X1A  REFERENCES  PAGES 1 ENCLOSURES (No. a TYPE)  REMARKS  1 ENCLOSURES (No. a TYPE)  REMARKS  25X2  1 Prior to March 1952, source learned from Polish workmen that the barracks installation which was located on the south side of the forms Nexicoure Strasse at the western edge of Lublin (S 52/R 16) and consisted of several multi-story red brick buildings, was occupied by a Polish infantry regiment and a UB unit. Fersonnel of the UB unit wore service color which was somewhat a lighter red than that of the infantry unit. Prior to March 1952, KBW troops in the strength of at least a battalion were quartered in a camp of about 20 low wooden buildings on the west side of ul. Lipowa, forwar Linden Strasse, north of a cenetery in the western section of the town. The commanding of fificer was a lleutenant colonel who, source learned from a prison inspector, was a Russian. The soldiers were khaki uniforms with blue collar pathes, preen shirts, dark green neckties and nervice caps with blue bands. They were equipped with submachine puns, light machine guns and mortars of about 80-am caliber, and had light armored recommissance vehicles, various tripe trucks and Russian sedars. They were engaged in fight in guerrilla groups in the Lublin area.  3. In the spring of 1950, a barracks installation was being built about 2 km southeast of the town on the northside of the road toward PlackI buterskie (5 52/R 26). Four buildings were commissance vehicles, verious the constructed in the barracks installation.  Comment. As the 3d Inf Div is carried in Lublin, it is believed that an infantry repiment of this division is "uartered in the barracks installation.  Comment. The unit observed probably is an element of the 3d KEV Brigate	TOPIC_	Polish 7	Proops in Lath	lin	**			:
DATE OF CONTENT prior to March 1952  DATE OF CONTENT prior to March 1952  DATE OF CONTENT Prior to March 1952  DATE PREPARED 25X1A  REFERENCES  PAGES 1 ENCLOSURES (No. a TYPE)  REMARKS  1 ENCLOSURES (No. a TYPE)  REMARKS  25X2  1 Prior to March 1952, source learned from Polish workmen that the barracks installation which was located on the south side of the forms Nexicoure Strasse at the western edge of Lublin (S 52/R 16) and consisted of several multi-story red brick buildings, was occupied by a Polish infantry regiment and a UB unit. Fersonnel of the UB unit wore service color which was somewhat a lighter red than that of the infantry unit. Prior to March 1952, KBW troops in the strength of at least a battalion were quartered in a camp of about 20 low wooden buildings on the west side of ul. Lipowa, forwar Linden Strasse, north of a cenetery in the western section of the town. The commanding of fificer was a lleutenant colonel who, source learned from a prison inspector, was a Russian. The soldiers were khaki uniforms with blue collar pathes, preen shirts, dark green neckties and nervice caps with blue bands. They were equipped with submachine puns, light machine guns and mortars of about 80-am caliber, and had light armored recommissance vehicles, various tripe trucks and Russian sedars. They were engaged in fight in guerrilla groups in the Lublin area.  3. In the spring of 1950, a barracks installation was being built about 2 km southeast of the town on the northside of the road toward PlackI buterskie (5 52/R 26). Four buildings were commissance vehicles, verious the constructed in the barracks installation.  Comment. As the 3d Inf Div is carried in Lublin, it is believed that an infantry repiment of this division is "uartered in the barracks installation.  Comment. The unit observed probably is an element of the 3d KEV Brigate							7	56-377
DATE OBTAINED  DATE PREPARED  25X1A  REFERENCES  1 ENCLOSURES (No. a TYPE)  REMARKS  1 ENCLOSURES (No. a TYPE)  REMARKS  25X  1 Prior to March 1952, source learned from Polish workmen that the barracks installation which was located on the south side of the forms Krakower Strasse at the western edge of Lubbin (S 52/R 18) and consisted of several multi-story red brick buildings, was occupied by a Polish infantry regiment and BU unit. Personnel of the UB unit worservice color which w.s somewhat a lighter red than that of the infantry unit.  2. Prior to March 1952, KBW troops in the strength of at least a battalion were quartered in a camp of about 20 low wooden buildings on the west side of ul. Lipowa, former Linden Strasse, north of a conserver in the western section of the town. The commanding officer was a lieutenant colonel who, source learned from a prison inspector, was Russian. The soldiers were khaki uniforms with blue collar pathes, green shirts, dark green neckties and service caps with blue bands. They were equipped with submachine guns, light machine guns and mortars of shout 80-mm caliber, and had light armored recomnaissance vehicles, various type trucks and Russian sedars. They were engaged in fighting guerrilla groups in the Lublin area.  3. In the spring of 1950, a barracks installation was being built about 2 km sout-sast of the town on the northeide of the road toward Plaski Luterskie (S 52/R 26). Four buildings were completed in Cetober 1951, and others were under construction. Source learned that a total 18  buildings would be constructed as estimated the site at about 1,000 x 600 meters. The completed buildings were four-story and about 10 meters long.  (1A 1. Comment. As the 3d Inf Div is carried in Lublin, it is believed that an infantry repiment of this division is wartered in the barracks installation.	EVALUAT	ION	25X1X	PLACE OBTAINED_			25X1A	30×31
REFERENCES  25X1A  25X1A  25X1B  REMARKS  1 ENCLOSURES (No. & TYPE)  25X  1. Prior to March 1952, source learned from Polish workmen that the barracks installation which was located on the south side of the forms) Krakower Strasse at the western edge of Lublin (S 52/R 18) and consisted of several multi-story red brick buildings, was occupied by a Polish infantry regiment at UB unit. Fersomel of the UB unit wore service color which w.s somewhat a lighter red than that of the infantry unit.  2. Prior to March 1952, KEW troops in the strength of at least a battalion were quartered in a camp of about 20 low wooden buildings on the west side of ul. Lipowa, former Linden Strasse, north of a centery in the western section of the town. The commanding officer was a lieutenant colonel who, source learned from a prison inspector, was a Russian. The soldiers were thaki uniforms with blue collar pathes, preen shirts, dark green neckties and service caps with blue bands. They were equipped with submachine guns, light machine guns and morters of about 80-mm caliber, and had light armored recommassance vehicles, various type trucks and Russian sedars. They were engaged in fighting guerrilla groups in the Lublin area.  3. In the spring of 1950, a barracks installation was being built about 2 km sout seasof of the town on the northside of the road toward Placki Litterskie (S 5/R 26). Four buildings were completed in Cutober 1951, and others were under construction. Source learned the site at about 1,000 x 600 meters. The completed buildings were four-story and about 10 meters long.  (1A 1. Comment. As the 3d Inf Div is carried in Lublin, it is believed that an infaniry regiment of this division is cuartered in the barracks installation.	DATE OF	CONTENT	pr ior to A	March 1952		,
PAGES 1 ENCLOSURES (NO. 2 TYPE)  1. Prior to March 1952, source learned from Polish workmen that the barracks installation which was located on the south side of the forme; Krakower Strasse at the western edge of Lublin (S 52/R 18) and consisted of several multi-story red brick buildings, was occupied by a Polish infantry regiment and a UB unit. Fersonnel of the UB unit wore service color which was somewhat a lighter red than that of the infantry unit.  2. Prior to March 1952, KBW troops in the strength of at least a battalion were quartered in a camp of about 20 low wooden buildings on the west side of ul. Lipowa, former Linden Strasse, north of a cometery in the western section of the town. The commanding officer was a lieutenant colonel who, source learned from a prison inspector, was a Russian. The soldiers were thakit uniforms with blue collar pathnes, preen shirts, dark green neckties and service caps with blue bands. They were equipped with submachine gruns, light machine gruns and mortars of about 80-mm caliber, and had light armored recommandance vehicles, various type trucks and Russian sedars. They were engaged in fighting guerrilla groups in the Lublin area.  3. In the spring of 1950, a barracks installation was being built about 2 km southeast of the town on the northside of the road toward Plaski Interskie (S 52/R 26). Four buildings were commelted in Cutober 1951, and enters were under construction. Source learned that a total of 18 buildings would be constructed. He estimated the site at about 1,000 x 600 meters. The completed buildings were four-story and about he meters long.  (1A 1. Comment. As the 3d Inf Div is carried in Lublin, it is believed that an infantry regiment of this division is carried in Lublin, it is believed that an infantry regiment. The unit observed probably is an element of the 3d KBE Brigade	DATE OB	TAINED	25Χ1Δ	DATE PRI	EPARED 21:	December	1952
REMARKS  1. Prior to March 1952, source learned from Polish workmen that the barracks installation which was located on the south side of the forms; Krakower Strasse at the western edge of Lublin (S 52/R 18) and consisted of several multi-story red brick buildings, was occupied by a Polish infantry regiment and a UB unit. Fersonnel of the UB unit wore service color which was somewhat a lighter red than that of the infantry unit.  2. Prior to March 1952, KEW troops in the strength of at least a battalion were quartered in a camp of about 20 low wooden buildings on the west side of ul. Lipowa, former Linden Strasse, north of a cometery in the western section of the town. The commanding officer was a lieutenant colonel who, source learned from a prison inspector, was a Russian. The soldiers were khaki uniforms with blue collar pa those, preen shirts, dark green neckties and service caps with blue bands. They were equipped with submachine guns, light machine guns and morters of about 80-mm caliber, and had light armored recommaissance vehicles, various type trucks and Russian seders. They were engaged in fighting guerrila groups in the Lublin area.  3. In the spring of 1950, a barracks installation was being built about 2 km southeast of the town on the northside of the road toward Placki Luterskie (S 52/R 26). Four buildings were completed in Cetober 1951, and others were under construction. Source learned the site at about 1,000 x 600 meters. The completed buildings were four-story and about 40 meters long.  (1A 1. Comment. As the 3d Inf Div is carried in Lublin, it is believed that an infantry regiment of this division is wartered in the barracks installation.	REFEREN	ICES	ZUNIA
1. Prior to March 1952, source learned from Polish workmen that the barracks installation which was located on the south side of the forms Krakower Strasse at the western edge of Lublin (S 52/R 18) and consisted of several multi-story red brick buildings, was occupied by a Polish infantry regiment and a UB unit. Fersonnel of the UB unit wore service color which was somewhat a lighter red than that of the infantry unit.  2. Prior to March 1952, KEM troops in the strength of at least a battalion were quartered in a camp of about 20 low wooden buildings on the western section of the town. The commanding officer was a lieutenant colonel who, source learned from a prison inspector, was a flussian. The soldiers were khaki uniforms with blue collar pa tohes, preen shirts, dark green neckties and service caps with blue bands. They were equipped with submachine guns, light machine guns and mortars of about 80-mm caliber, and had light armored recommaissance vehicles, various type trucks and Russian sedars. They were engaged in fighting guerrilla groups in the Lublin area.  3. In the spring of 1950, a barracks installation was being built about 2 km southeast of the town on the northside of the road toward Plaski Luterskie (S 52/R 26). Four buildings were completed in Actober 1951, and others were under construction. Source learned the site at about 1,000 x 600 meters. The completed buildings were four-story and about he meters long.  (1A 1. Comment. As the 3d Inf Div is carried in Lublin, it is believed that an infantry regiment of this division is wartered in the barracks installation.	PAGES	 	ENCLOSURES	(NO. & TYPE)			,
1. Prior to March 1952, source learned from Polish workmen that the barracks installation which was located on the south side of the forms? Krakower Strasse at the western edge of Lublin (S 52/R 18) and consisted of several multi-story red brick buildings, was occupied by a Polish infantry regiment and a UB unit. Fersonnel of the UB unit wore service color which was somewhat a lighter red than that of the infantry unit.  2. Prior to March 1952, KEW troops in the strength of at least a battalion were quartered in a camp of about 20 low wooden buildings on the west side of ul. Lipowa, former Linden Strasse, north of a cometery in the western section of the town. The commanding officer was a lieutenat colonel who, source learned from a prison inspector, was a Russian. The soldiers were khaki uniforms with blue collar patches, green shirts, dark green neckties and service caps with blue bands. They were equipped with submachine guns, light machine guns and mortars of about 80-mm caliber, and had light armored recommaissance vehicles, various type trucks and Russian sedars. They were engaged in fighting guerrilla groups in the Lublin area.  3. In the spring of 1950, a barracks installation was being built about 2 km southeast of the town on the northside of the road toward Plaski Luterskie (S 52/R 26). Four buildings were completed in Cetober 1951, and others were under construction. Source learned the site at about 1,000 x 600 meters. The completed buildings were four-story and about 40 meters long.  (1A 1. Comment. As the 3d Inf Div is carried in Lublin, it is believed that an infantry regiment of this division is martered in the barracks installation.	REMARKS	3
1. Prior to March 1952, source learned from Polish workmen that the barracks installation which was located on the south side of the forms? Krakower Strasse at the western edge of Lublin (S 52/R 18) and consisted of several multi-story red brick buildings, was occupied by a Polish infantry regiment and a UB unit. Fersonnel of the UB unit wore service color which was somewhat a lighter red than that of the infantry unit.  2. Prior to March 1952, KEW troops in the strength of at least a battalion were quartered in a camp of about 20 low wooden buildings on the west side of ul. Lipowa, former Linden Strasse, north of a cometery in the western section of the town. The commanding officer was a lieutenat colonel who, source learned from a prison inspector, was a Russian. The soldiers were khaki uniforms with blue collar patches, green shirts, dark green neckties and service caps with blue bands. They were equipped with submachine guns, light machine guns and mortars of about 80-mm caliber, and had light armored recommaissance vehicles, various type trucks and Russian sedars. They were engaged in fighting guerrilla groups in the Lublin area.  3. In the spring of 1950, a barracks installation was being built about 2 km southeast of the town on the northside of the road toward Plaski Luterskie (S 52/R 26). Four buildings were completed in Cetober 1951, and others were under construction. Source learned the site at about 1,000 x 600 meters. The completed buildings were four-story and about 40 meters long.  (1A 1. Comment. As the 3d Inf Div is carried in Lublin, it is believed that an infantry regiment of this division is martered in the barracks installation.	ACCORDING TO A STREET OF THE STREET			PI	1.1
1. Prior to March 1952, source learned from Polish workmen that the barracks installation which was located on the south side of the forms? Krakower Strasse at the western edge of Lublin (S 52/R 18) and consisted of several multi-story red brick buildings, was occupied by a Polish infantry regiment and a UB unit. Fersonnel of the UB unit wore service color which was somewhat a lighter red than that of the infantry unit.  2. Prior to March 1952, KEW troops in the strength of at least a battalion were quartered in a camp of about 20 low wooden buildings on the west side of ul. Lipowa, former Linden Strasse, north of a cometery in the western section of the town. The commanding officer was a lieutenat colonel who, source learned from a prison inspector, was a Russian. The soldiers were khaki uniforms with blue collar patches, green shirts, dark green neckties and service caps with blue bands. They were equipped with submachine guns, light machine guns and mortars of about 80-mm caliber, and had light armored recommaissance vehicles, various type trucks and Russian sedars. They were engaged in fighting guerrilla groups in the Lublin area.  3. In the spring of 1950, a barracks installation was being built about 2 km southeast of the town on the northside of the road toward Plaski Luterskie (S 52/R 26). Four buildings were completed in Cetober 1951, and others were under construction. Source learned the site at about 1,000 x 600 meters. The completed buildings were four-story and about 40 meters long.  (1A 1. Comment. As the 3d Inf Div is carried in Lublin, it is believed that an infantry regiment of this division is martered in the barracks installation.			Marting the same hands and the special participation of the special partic	111
1. Prior to March 1952, source learned from Polish workmen that the barracks installation which was located on the south side of the forms? Krakower Strasse at the western edge of Lublin (S 52/R 18) and consisted of several multi-story red brick buildings, was occupied by a Polish infantry regiment and a UB unit. Fersonnel of the UB unit wore service color which was somewhat a lighter red than that of the infantry unit.  2. Prior to March 1952, KEW troops in the strength of at least a battalion were quartered in a camp of about 20 low wooden buildings on the west side of ul. Lipowa, former Linden Strasse, north of a cometery in the western section of the town. The commanding officer was a lieutenant colonel who, source learned from a prison inspector, was a Russian. The soldiers were khaki uniforms with blue collar patches, green shirts, dark green neckties and service caps with blue bands. They were equipped with submachine guns, light machine guns and mortars of about 80-mm caliber, and had light armored recommaissance vehicles, various type trucks and Russian sedars. They were engaged in fighting guerrilla groups in the Lublin area.  3. In the spring of 1950, a barracks installation was being built about 2 km southeast of the town on the northside of the road toward Piaski Luterskie (S 52/R 26). Four buildings were committed in Cotober 1951, and others were under construction. Source learned the site at about 1,000 x 600 meters. The completed buildings were four-story and about 40 meters long.  (1A 1. Comment. As the 3d Inf Div is carried in Lublin, it is believed that an infantry regiment of this division is martered in the barracks installation.		·		Do J
1. Prior to March 1952, source learned from Polish workmen that the barracks installation which was located on the south side of the forms? Krakower Strasse at the western edge of Lublin (S 52/R 18) and consisted of several multi-story red brick buildings, was occupied by a Polish infantry regiment and a UB unit. Fersonnel of the UB unit wore service color which was somewhat a lighter red than that of the infantry unit.  2. Prior to March 1952, KEW troops in the strength of at least a battalion were quartered in a camp of about 20 low wooden buildings on the west side of ul. Lipowa, former Linden Strasse, north of a cometery in the western section of the town. The commanding officer was a lieutenant colonel who, source learned from a prison inspector, was a Russian. The soldiers were khaki uniforms with blue collar patches, green shirts, dark green neckties and service caps with blue bands. They were equipped with submachine guns, light machine guns and mortars of about 80-mm caliber, and had light armored recommaissance vehicles, various type trucks and Russian sedars. They were engaged in fighting guerrilla groups in the Lublin area.  3. In the spring of 1950, a barracks installation was being built about 2 km southeast of the town on the northside of the road toward Piaski Luterskie (S 52/R 26). Four buildings were committed in Cotober 1951, and others were under construction. Source learned the site at about 1,000 x 600 meters. The completed buildings were four-story and about 40 meters long.  (1A 1. Comment. As the 3d Inf Div is carried in Lublin, it is believed that an infantry regiment of this division is martered in the barracks installation.	COLIDAR
at the western edge of Lublin (S 52/R 18) and consisted of several multi-story red brick buildings, was occupied by a Polish infantry regiment and a UB unit. Personnel of the UB unit were service color which was somewhat a lighter red than that of the infantry unit.  2. Prior to March 1952, KEW troops in the strength of at least a battalion were quartered in a camp of about 20 low wooden buildings on the west side of ul. Lipowa, former Linden Strasse, north of a cemetery in the western section of the town. The commanding officer was a lieutenant colonel who, source learned from a prison inspector, was a Russian. The soldiers were khaki uniforms with blue collar patches, green shirts, dark green neckties and service caps with blue bands. They were equipped with submachine guns, light machine guns and mortars of about 80-mm caliber, and had light armored recommaissance vehicles, various type trucks and Russian sedars. They were engaged in fighting guerrilla groups in the Lublin area.  3. In the spring of 1950, a barracks installation was being built about 2 km soutleast of the town on the northside of the road toward Piaski Luterskie (S 52/R 26). Four buildings were completed in Cotober 1951, and others were under construction. Source learned that a total of 18 buildings would be constructed. He estimated the site at about 1,000 x 600 meters. The completed buildings were four-story and about 10 meters long.  (1A 1. Comment. As the 3d Inf Div is carried in Lublin, it is believed that an infantry regiment of this division is marriered in the barracks installation.	SUURCE							25X1
(S 52/R 26). Four buildings were completed in October 1951, and others were under construction. Source learned that a total of 18 2 buildings would be constructed. He estimated the site at about 1,000 x 600 meters. The completed buildings were four-story and about 40 meters long.  (1A 1. Comment. As the 3d Inf Div is carried in Lublin, it is believed that an infantry regiment of this division is quartered in the barracks installation.  (1A 2. Comment. The unit observed probably is an element of the 3d KBW Brigade		red brick Personnel than that	buildings, w of the UB un of the infan	it wore service color	and consisted ish infantry which was so	forme; hof sever regiment mewhat a	and a UB lighter	Strasse -story unit. red
(1A 2. Comment. The unit observed probably is an element of the 3d KBW Brigade	2.	red brick Personnel than that Prior to A quartered Lipowa, for town. The a prison i collar path bands. The of about 8 type truck	buildings, wo of the UB un of the infan darch 1952, K in a camp of commanding commanding inspector, was the series of the commanding of th	as occupied by a Polit wore service color try unit. I  By troops in the strabout 20 low wooden Strasse, north of a confficer was a lieuters a Russian. The sold shirts, dark green noted with submachine and the strategy of the submachine and the submachine and the strategy of the submachine and the strategy of the submachine and the submachine and the strategy of th	ength of at le buildings on emetery in the mant colonel the diers were khasekties and se eurs, light ma	former if of sever regiment regiment a mewhat a the west er western who, sour aki unifo ervice catchine gu	ral multi and a UB lighter ttalion v side of section oe learnerms with ps with ins and mo	Strasse -story unit. red were ul. of the ed from blue blue brtars red brick Personnel than that Prior to A quartered Lipowa, for town. The a prison is collar path bands. The of about 8 type truck the Lublin In the spr soutleast (5 52/R 26 construct to buildings to the Prior town the Lublings of the Lubl	buildings, wo of the UB un of the infan darch 1952, K in a camp of ormer Linden commanding of the sand Russian area. 2  ing of 1950, of the town common. Source leads to common could be considered to common could be considered to considered to common could be considered to considered the considered to considered the considered to considered the considered to considered the considered to command the considered to common considered to considered to common considered to common considered to conside	as occupied by a Polait wore service color itry unit. I  BW troops in the strate about 20 low wooden Strasse north of a confficer was a lieuter a Russian. The sold shirts, dark green not be a Russian. The sold shirts, dark green not be a reached with submachine and had light armount sedans. They were a barracks installation the north-side of the same o	ength of at le buildings on smetery in the chant colonel the colonel to colonel the c	east a ba the wester who, sour aki unifo arrice ca achine gu sance veh chting gu d Piaski 51, and that a t	ral multi and a UB lighter ttalion v side of section oe learner rms with ns and m icles, va errilla g bout 2 km Luterski others we	Strasse -story unit. red  were ul. of the ed from blue ortars arious roups in
	3.	red brick Personnel than that Prior to A quartered Lipowa, for town. The a prison it collar patholds. The of about 8 type truck the Lublin In the spreasure ($52/R 26 construct is buildings in the complete Comments ($500 construct is buildings in the complete Comme	buildings, wo of the UB un of the UB un of the infan darch 1952, K in a camp of commanding anspector, was the sand Russian area. 2 ing of 1950, of the town of the	as occupied by a Polait wore service coloratry unit.  By troops in the strabout 20 low wooden Strasse, north of a cofficer was a lieuter a Russian. The sold shirts, dark green moded with submachine and had light armound sedans. They were a barracks installation the northside of things were completed earned atructed. He estimate were four-story and	ength of at least the which was so emetery in the hant colonel which was and se extres and se extres and se extres and se extres and se engaged in figure was being the road towar in October 19 ed the site at about 40 meters and in Lublin.	east a bathe western who, sour aki unifo ervice cathe achine guit de Piaski (51, and achine funit al that a to about 1, rs long.	ral multi and a UB lighter  ittalion was side of a section on learner with was and maicles, was errilla ground the section of 1,000 x 60	Strasse -story cunit. red  were ul. of the ed from blue ortars arious roups in  n.e. ere under 8 2.0 meters.
	3. (1A 1.	red brick Personnel than that Prior to A quartered Lipowa, for town. The a prison is collar path bands. The of about 8 type truck the Lublin In the spread townstruct is 52/R 26 construct is buildings in The complete Commental Comments of the Comments of	buildings, wo of the UB un of the UB un of the infan darch 1952, K in a camp of commanding anspector, was the sand Russian area. 2 ing of 1950, of the town of the	as occupied by a Polait wore service color atry unit. I  BW troops in the strabout 20 low wooden Strasse, north of a conficer was a lieuters a Russian. The sold shirts, dark green not be a man and had light armount as dars. They were a barracks installation the northside of things were completed atructed. He estimate were four-story and a light in the northside of the structed armed atructed. He estimate were four-story and a light is carried at the structed	ength of at le buildings on emetery in the nant colonel which was sometery in the nant colonel which was light mared reconnaiss engaged in fight mared to the site at about 40 meters and the site at about 40 meters and in Lublin, ered in the buildings.	east a bathe western who, sour aki unifo ervice canchine guance vehing guance that a to that a to that a to that a to the taski in sour limb laracks in the balarracks in the sour laracks in the source laracks in the sour laracks in the source laracks i	al multi and a UB lighter iside of section oe learn rms with ps with I ns and m icles, va errilla g bout 2 km Luterski others we ottal of 1 ,000 x 60	Strasse -story cunit. red  were ul. of the ed from blue ortars arious groups in  e.
	3. (1A 1.	red brick Personnel than that Prior to A quartered Lipowa, for town. The a prison is collar path bands. The of about 8 type truck the Lublin In the spread townstruct is 52/R 26 construct is buildings in The complete Commental Comments of the Comments of	buildings, wo of the UB un of the UB un of the infan darch 1952, K in a camp of commanding anspector, was the sand Russian area. 2 ing of 1950, of the town of the	as occupied by a Polait wore service color atry unit. I  BW troops in the strabout 20 low wooden Strasse, north of a conficer was a lieuters a Russian. The sold shirts, dark green not be a man and had light armount as dars. They were a barracks installation the northside of things were completed atructed. He estimate were four-story and a light in the northside of the structed armed atructed. He estimate were four-story and a light is carried at the structed	ength of at le buildings on emetery in the nant colonel which was sometery in the nant colonel which was light mared reconnaiss engaged in fight mared to the site at about 40 meters and the site at about 40 meters and in Lublin, ered in the buildings.	east a bathe western who, sour aki unifo ervice canchine guance vehing guance that a to that a to that a to that a to the taski in sour limb laracks in the balarracks in the sour laracks in the source laracks in the sour laracks in the source laracks i	al multi and a UB lighter iside of section oe learn rms with ps with I ns and m icles, va errilla g bout 2 km Luterski others we ottal of 1 ,000 x 60	Strasse -story cunit. red  were ul. of the ed from blue ortars arious groups in  e.
	3. (1A 1.	red brick Personnel than that Prior to A quartered Lipowa, for town. The a prison is collar path bands. The of about 8 type truck the Lublin In the spread townstruct is 52/R 26 construct is buildings in The complete Commental Comments of the Comments of	buildings, wo of the UB un of the UB un of the infan darch 1952, K in a camp of commanding anspector, was the sand Russian area. 2 ing of 1950, of the town of the	as occupied by a Polait wore service color atry unit. I  BW troops in the strabout 20 low wooden Strasse, north of a conficer was a lieuters a Russian. The sold shirts, dark green not be a man and had light armount as dars. They were a barracks installation the northside of things were completed atructed. He estimate were four-story and a light in the northside of the structed armed atructed. He estimate were four-story and a light is carried at the structed	ength of at le buildings on emetery in the nant colonel which was sometery in the nant colonel which was light mared reconnaiss engaged in fight mared to the site at about 40 meters and the site at about 40 meters and in Lublin, ered in the buildings.	east a bathe western who, sour aki unifo ervice canchine guance vehing guance that a to that a to that a to that a to the taski in sour limb laracks in the balarracks in the sour laracks in the source laracks in the sour laracks in the source laracks i	al multi and a UB lighter side of section on learn with ps with ins and maicles, valerilla growth and there we bout 2 km Luterski others we otal of 1,000 x 60 lieved the installat	Strasse -story unit. red  were ul. of the ed from blue ortars arious groups in  e.